

Palpung Yeshe Chökhör Ling Europe

A direct independent branch of the Palpung congregation of Tai Situpa under the direction of Lama Palmo

Palpung Yeshe Chökhör Ling is a spiritual home for all those who want to come to know as well as meditate and practice the Buddhist teachings of the pure unbroken lineage of loving kindness and compassion for all sentient beings, particularly the lineage of Karma Kagyu in order to follow the examples of our great enlightened masters such as Marpa Lotsawa, Milarepa, Je Gampopa and the successive incarnations of H. H. Karmapa.

Our activities evolve out of a forum in which spiritual life in its completeness with its various aspects can be practiced, a place with space for national and international interreligious as well as intercultural exchange, a place where peace within ourselves for all sentient beings shall be cultivated.

Palpung Yeshe Chökhör Ling together with all its activities is dedicated to the development of peace which starts within and with ourselves, hence radiating to all sentient beings. It is our contribution to World Peace.

Our project bears the blessing of H. H. Dalai Lama and H. H. Karmapa; our parent monastery is Palpung Sherab Ling in H. P., India.

H. E. Kyabje Kalu Rinpoche

Shangpa Kagyu Ngondro and Empowerment in Dorje Sempa

Palpung Yeshe Chökhör Ling Europe

May 10 - 12, 2010

H. E. Kyabje Kalu Rinpoche is regarded the incarnation of Khyungpo Naljor, Vairocana, Ananda and Jamgon Lodro Thaye.

The first Kalu Rinpoche was born 1905 in Kham, Eastern Tibet. At the age of thirteen he traveled to Palpung in Tibet where Rinpoche received his novice vows from the eleventh Tai Situ Rinpoche, hence entering Palpung monastery. At sixteen he entered the traditional three-years- retreat, followed by a second one. Rinpoche received the rare transmissions of the Shangpa Kagyu and the Marpa Kagyu tradition as well as all transmissions from the old and new traditions. Rinpoche was recognized by Tai Situ Rinpoche to be an emanation of Jamgon Kongtrul Rinpoche. At the age of twenty-five Rinpoche entered a twelve year long solitary retreat and returned to the monastery upon the wish of Tai Situ Rinpoche to become the retreat master of both retreat centers: Naroling and Niguling. In 1955, following the wish of H. H. Karmapa, Kalu Rinpoche left Tibet to prepare for things in exile. From 1971 to 1981 Kalu Rinpoche traveled the entire world and established more than 70 dharma, 20 retreat centers and built 20 stupas. Rinpoche passed away May 10, 1989 in Sonada.

The second Kalu Rinpoche was born September 17, 1990 in Darjeeling, India. The birth was accompanied by extraordinary signs and Yangsi Rinpoche was recognized by Kuanding Tai Situ Rinpoche March 25, 1992. The recognition was also confirmed by H. H. The Dalai Lama.

February 28, 1993 Rinpoche was enthroned in Sonada in his monastery by Dorje Chang Tai Situ Rinpoche, Goshir Gyaltzab Rinpoche and Kyabje Bokar Rinpoche. He also traveled to Tibet to meet H. H. The Gyalwang Karmapa.

Yangsi Kalu Rinpoche entered the Shangpa three-years retreat in Bokar monastery in August 2004 and completed it September 2008. Straight after, he traveled to Palpung Sherab Ling to meet with Dorje Chang Tai Situ Rinpoche. This is Kalu Rinpoche's first world tour to teach the holy dharma. Kalu Rinpoche is the lineage holder of the glorious Shangpa Kagyu lineage.

Shangpa Kagyu Ngondro and empowerment in Dorje Sempa (refuge + Bodhisattva vows necessary, may be requested). It is Rinpoche's only visit to the entire German speaking area and countries.

These practices are the preliminaries on the itinerary of each Vajrayana practitioner on the path of Mahamudra. Rinpoche will teach a specific new text which was composed by Chamgon Dorje Chang Tai Situ Rinpoche in 2009.
